

Palliative Care Social Work Team

Here to support you and the people important to you

Rennie Grove Peace

We are here to listen. You can talk to us about how you are feeling, your worries or spiritual concerns. We support both you and those close to you.

Speaking up for you

We help make sure your wishes are heard and respected by:

- Helping you understand and navigate health and social care systems
- Supporting you to share your views and preferences with professionals
- Guiding you through forms and important processes
- Making sure you can access the support and services you are entitled to
- Connecting you with the right people and organisations for extra support

You do not have to figure things out on your own.

Helping you find the right support

We can connect you with:

- Local support groups
- Community services
- Volunteer help
- Practical support at home

Money and legal guidance

We can help you find advice about:

- Benefits and financial support
- Housing or insurance
- Wills and power of attorney

Help with family conversations

Illness can be stressful. We can support you and your family to talk things through and make sure everyone feels heard.

Day-to-day practical help

We can guide you to services that help with:

- Shopping
- Cleaning
- Meals
- Reducing loneliness

Supporting your overall wellbeing

We work closely with your healthcare team and community services. Together, we look at your wellbeing as a whole – emotional, practical, social and spiritual – to make sure you receive joined-up support that feels right for you, wherever you are.

Contact us

To attend our free one-to-one welfare clinic or to find out more about how our Palliative Care Social Work Team can support you, speak with a member of your healthcare team, call us on 01923 60 60 30 or email coordinationcentre@renniegrovepeace.org

Our services are free thanks to the generosity of our local community who fund the vast majority of our services.
